By encouraging involvement in superior stockmanship and sanctioning more high caliber trials in Virginia than anyone, the VBCA is the premier organization for advanced stock dog handling.

VBCA membership ranges from the casual handler, to professional stockmen, and all the way to the level of international competitor.

Whether or not you decide to train your dog and compete in sheepdog trials, the VBCA welcomes all who want to support our mission. There are many opportunities to volunteer at trials and enjoy the advantages of VBCA membership.
